A Message from the Manager

KGLP has now been broadcasting in Gallup, New Mexico, and the surrounding area for 26 years, with the help of many supporters for over two and a half decades, including most of you who are reading this, now. KGLP.org’s online audio streaming has performed well. Anyone can listen there, or on mobile devices via the TuneIn Radio App, available for Android and iOS devices. If away from our regional 91.7 FM broadcast, you can also listen on any telephone, whether on a landline or cellular connection, by calling 1-712-775-5759 (that number being on an Iowa exchange, meaning that long-distance charges might apply, at least in a few areas or in some cases, though most cellular plans won’t charge extra for domestic calls in the United States.)

In early June, our failed 14-year-old transmitter was successfully replaced, satisfying the Federal Communications Requirement that we broadcast at our licensed output power level of 1,500 watts. Purchase, installation, and follow-up tweaking cost about $10,000.

Our on-air signal is not yet taking full advantage of our new transmitter, largely due to the state of our 14-year-old Studio-Transmitter-Link, the digital Moseley system that conveys our programming via line-of-site microwave radio, from studios at the University of New Mexico Gallup branch campus up to our new transmitter on Gibson Peak.

Early 2018 saw lots of shuffling of positions, with several resignations and appointments. We hope that the January 14th Board Election will yield a strong roster of active Directors to help see Gallup Public Radio through 2019 and beyond.

If you would like to meet any Board Members, consider RSVP’ing or just drop by the October 16th Signal Clean-up Party in Dr. Sloan’s backyard.

Fall Signal Clean-Up Campaign Premiums and Gifts

Anyone willing to support Gallup Public Radio is welcome to come by our Fall Kickoff Party this Tuesday evening, October 16th, from 6:30 until 9 in Dr. Sloan’s backyard (or inside should the weather turn.), or you could come by KGLP during the continuation of the Fall Fundraising Campaign, October 22nd thru the 27th, to pick up such items as our “Silver” 25th Anniversary KGLP logo bumper sticker and pen, refrigerator magnet, artwork, or other freebies, while supplies last.

Anyone donating $25 (or hopefully more) may come by the station to pick up a 4 ounce jar of fresh jelly direct from the Prickly Pear fields of Gallup, New Mexico (this in addition to other gifts.) A variety of artwork is available to pick up, for donations ranging from $100 up to $800, including single and multi-piece sets. Here are some examples:

Above is the 40” x 50” painting by Placitas, NM artist Lou M Call that resided in KGLP’s front room for almost a decade. In early 2014, it finally went to a generous member who had donated $2k from a vehicle sale, and then hung in his Gallup residence until recently - now he’s donated it back to KGLP for our October 16th Silent Auction at Terrence Sloan’s backyard Signal Clean-up Party. (In the event of bad weather, the affair will move inside.)

Fall / Winter Manager’s Message (Signal Clean-Up)

Listeners occasionally hear varying degrees of clicks, pops, and minor dropouts, i.e., blips of time when audio levels drop, disturbing the flow of our audio out to listeners. Sometimes the signal is as clear as ever, and at other times is downright irritating.

The solution? Install a new system to convey audio from our UNMG studios up to our Gibson Peak transmitter, either with a microwave STL similar to what we have now, or with an IP-based wireless system. The cost for purchase and installation is projected in the range of around $10,000.

Suffice it to say that we still need your help to pay the bills. Our Spring 2018 donations were significantly less than last year's, but with your help we can still afford these improvements to our broadcast service by year's end, if we start soon.

With that in mind, Gallup Public Radio Board Member Dr. Terrence Sloan is again hosting a backyard fundraising party for KGLP, this time from 6:30 until around nine, this Tuesday evening, October 16th, at 1115 Boggio Drive, in Gallup (for directions or if you want to let us know that you're planning to come, you may email me: manager@kglp.org - otherwise just text or call me at 505-980-5437, and I'll get you to the party.)

KGLP's October 16th "Signal Clean-Up Party" strives to jumpstart funds toward improving our on-air signal, paying for new equipment and catching up on old transmitter bills, and hopefully helping get us back within budget for the year. There will be refreshments such as wine, cheese, Salmon, crackers, non-alcoholic beverages, a silent (mostly art) auction, and a return engagement by classical guitarist Liam Murphy, whose mesmerizing performance was greatly appreciated at a similar KGLP backyard fundraiser last year at Dr. Sloan's place.

We'll continue with our Fall Fundraising Campaign during the week of October 22nd through October 27th, hoping for more of you to become sustaining members, signing up online for monthly donations through credit, PayPal, or bank transfer, as we work toward successfully re-vamping our on-air signal, improve cash flow, and better serve our listeners, the community of Gallup and surrounding areas such as Bread Springs, Churchrock, Tohatchi, Houck, Thoreau, and parts of communities such as Window Rock, Ft. Defiance, St. Michaels, Ramah, and Zuni.

Cash flow has always been important, as provided by our donors and members. Additionally, our funding from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting is contingent on sufficient matching funds, such as from our listeners. You help sustain our grant funding with every dollar given to Gallup Public Radio.

We still have a couple of 25th Anniversary mementos such as pens, stickers, and stemmed glassware, while supplies last, available upon request with your contribution. A donation of $25 or more would make you eligible to request pickup of Gallup-grown and canned Prickly Pear Jelly, while supplies last. $200 or more would qualify you for a Day Sponsorship, a shoutout to a family member or associate, or on behalf of a favorite charity on a date of your choosing, when we would repeat your message at least 15 times.

We appreciate all of our listeners, and certainly our supporters, including those of you who donate to KGLP each year or two, and those who have become sustaining members, arranging for automatic donations of smaller amounts each month. (Continued on Page 10) =>>
You are Invited!!

KGLP’s Fall 2018 Signal Clean-Up Party and fundraiser happens this Tuesday evening, October 16th, from 6:30 until 9, with a backyard party (or inside, if weather intrudes) at board member Terrence Sloan’s house, located at 1115 Boggio Drive, in Gallup. You may call or text Rachel Kaub at 505-980-5437, or email her at manager@kglp.org for directions or questions.

- There will be some refreshments, including wine and cheese, music by classical guitarist Liam Murphy, a Silent Auction featuring area artwork, gifts such as KGLP Logo pens, bumper stickers, and more. New members who donate at least $25 and renewing or sustaining members who donate at least $25 more than their last donation may keep a 25th Anniversary KGLP logo stemmed glass, while supplies last, along with a 4 oz jar of Gallup-grown and canned Prickly Pear jelly!

- This is an opportunity to socialize, network, and support Public Radio in Gallup, preparing for the kickoff week of our Fall/Winter Campaign, which starts on-air October 22nd through October 27th.

- If you come to the October 16th Party, consider bringing your checkbook, cash, credit card*, or even your mobile device with a SquareCash app, and donate something to KGLP. If you can’t make it, consider making a donation during Gallup Public Radio’s Fall Campaign, which starts October 22nd through the 27th.

- We hope to raise at least $25,000 by the end of the year, to help with the purchase of equipment to improve our on-air signal and better relay our programming to the new Gibson Peak transmitter, as well as bolstering our budget by year’s end.

- Nominations are being accepted for the next board election, scheduled to conclude during the January 14th annual members meeting, at 7pm, which will follow the 5:30pm board meeting for Gallup Public Radio. Ballot forms will be available at the October 16th “Signal Clean-Up” kickoff party, along with pledge forms, freebies, and fun! (the Board Election Ballot also on Page 3 of this newsletter.)

- Rachel Kaub will be on hand with an audio recorder, should anyone wish to record a “shout out” to KGLP listeners for broadcast during the start of our Fall Campaign October 22nd through October 27th.

- We’re inviting some folks who support KGLP to talk about why they need Public Radio...speaking to the choir, with the passion that like minds share.
